2

What is a Self-Study?

- It is a document prepared by an institution describing how the institution meets the Standards and Criteria of the Commission.
- It familiarizes the visiting team with the institution's programs and services
- It is prepared according to a prescribed format
- It involves the participation of all institutional personnel

3

COE Accreditation for Job Corps Centers

1. The relationship between Job Corps and COE
2. The Value of accreditation for Job Corps Centers
3. Suggested steps for initial accreditation in Job Corps setting
4. Utilize the Institutional Self-Study as a candid assessment tool

4

10 Standards of Accreditation

- The Council has adopted 10 standards that represent institutional aspects that must be evaluated on a regular basis
- Member institutions are obligated to maintain compliance with these Standards if they wish to maintain their accredited status
- The standards are comprised of individual criteria that help the Council assure institutional quality

5

How the Report is organized?

- The Report is written in narrative form
- There is a chapter for each Standard
- Each chapter has four parts:
 - Introduction
 - Analysis
 - Challenges & Proposed Solutions
 - Summary

IMPORTANT

At the time of the visit, the institution is providing a "snapshot" that reflects the status of the institution's compliance with COE criteria. Therefore, NO changes, modifications, additions, or deletions may be made to the institution's documentation
